Editor and Manager.

SENT TO THE POST OFFICE AT Weymouth
W.M., AS FIRST-CLASS MATTER.

FRIDAY, AUG. 11, 1905.

We are a great people, with great shops, great buildings, and a lot of other great things, but it is about time to call a halt on blowing our big horn to the peace-every and let them settle down to business and earn their 82nd day.

John D. Rockefeller may be elected mayor of the home city, Cleveland, but in the mean time while the campaign is on some people will say things of him which are not pretty.

Admiral Charles E. Clark passed the age limit yesterday and is now a retired officer of the U. S. Navy, but while he himself is retired, his frugality and heroism in connection with the battleship Oregon can never retire and will always stand as one of the most heroic and well-executed feats of modern times.

In Mexico nine men constitute a jury, a majority can decide a case and when decision is unanimous there is no appeal. There may be times when they should work an evil but judges by the large number of murders and other high crimes which are now hung up in this state for final decision, it would be well to try it.

The Mustard Mercury is giving its readers some fine illustrations of the work of epoxy and brown tail moths and good advice as to how to get rid of them. Weymouth, the moderns are illustrating their own work and too many people are indifferent in regard to the situation. Every man should destroy the nests as fast as they appear on his place and the whole street gang should be put on the job of destroying those on the roadside. There are some other things which can wait awhile.

The Weymouth Agricultural and Industrial Society is in the field this year much earlier than usual with their annual fair but it does not follow that there will be any less attractions unless it may be in the vegetable and fruit which will not be quite so far along in some instances. The managers have made the present arrangement in order to have Labor Day included in the program and also to obtain the difference which has often resulted of having two or more fairs in the same vicinity at the same time. The fair is only three weeks away and it is soon to begin to put in work which will make the fair a success. There will be many new features but above all let us demonstrate that Weymouth is a good town for manufacturers and field products. See ad. elsewhere in this issue.

Enrolled Mills.

The enrolled militia of the town, according to last report is 2,093 men. This number is divided among the various wards as follows:—Ward 1, 277; Ward 2, 750; Ward 3, 476; Ward 4, 276; Ward 5, 314.

Abraham S. Bates Dead.

Abraham S. Bates of Middle St., Weymouth Center, was the third of a party of neighbors and friends who have been intimate for many years, to pass away within twenty-four hours of each other on Monday.

Mr. Bates was a son of Joseph Bates, was born near the place which has always been his home, and had been a few weeks more would have been 80 years of age.

Decceased was a man whom to know was to love and respect, and his memory will be cherished by all who have ever had the pleasure to associate with him.

For a number of years he has been unable to take an active part in society matters on account of a shock which rendered him somewhat helpless, but in his earlier days he took an active part in society matters and was one of the most constant attendees at the meetings of Orphans Hope Lodge, F. & A. M.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Middle street Thursday afternoon and were largely attended by relatives and friends and by Orphans Hope Lodge. Rev. W. H. Butler was the officiating clergyman and the Haydon quartette added several choice selections to the service.

The remains were escorted to the Old North cemetery by Orphans Hope Lodge whose Masonic services were performed by W. M. F. H. Torrey and Chaplain M. E. Hawes.

The services were: Michael Metrich, representing relatives; George W. Dyer, the Methodist church and E. G. Bates and B. P. French, Orphans Hope Lodge.

Mr. Bates was twice married and leaves a widow and four sons, Everett E., Abbott C., George L. and Willard H.

Condition of Crops.

Crop conditions have greatly improved since the report last was written, due to precipitation of the last two days of the week ending July 31st and the first few days of the past week. Corn and potatoes show the greatest improvement, as at last report they were in a somewhat serious condition, owing to lack of moisture. The former is now generally in a normal condition. While the nights have been rather cool, the low temperature has not been a great hindrance to the development of crops.

Grains.—The hay harvest was practically completed during July, but a few reports indicate that late debts were harvested the past week. Second-crop grass has not shown to good advantage previously, but an improved condition is now noticeable, due to recent rains. Pastures which last week were in a somewhat poor condition, are now fully assured in nearly all sections.

Fruit.—No decided change has taken place in the condition of fruit in the past week. Berries of all kinds, with the single exception of blueberries, are quite plentiful. Peaches and pears will be poor crop, but apple reports are still very favorable, and about a decided improvement.

VEGETABLES.—Vegetables of all kinds show marked improvement, due to the rainfall of the past week and last. Potatoes and onions show the greatest benefit. The marketing of garden truck is quite general; cabbages, carrots, parsnips, beets, onions, etc., coming in large quantities.

J. W. SMITH,
Section Director, Boston, Mass.

Dean's Marmalade Mills absolutely absent. Absent. Entirely vegetable, Salt
Commandant, Savory and Station.

Mrs. Susan Stevens Dead.
After months of failing health incident to advanced years, Mrs. Susan Stevens passed away at her home on Commercial Street, East Weymouth last Saturday afternoon.

Decceased was a daughter of Isaac and Susan French and was born in East Weymouth six years ago. Although but little known for the past few years, during her earlier and middle life few people in town were better known or more highly regarded than she. She inherited from her parents a musical ability far above the average and was well known as one of the best solo singers in the vicinity. She early identified herself with the Methodist church and as long as physical condition would permit was an active worker in the church and society work. Mr. Stevens passed away several years ago but his widow continued on in the old home and for a number of years has had as associate and companion, a sister, Miss Eliza M. French.

Funeral services were held at the house Monday afternoon and were largely attended by friends and relatives who brought many rare and beautiful tributes. Rev. W. H. Butler of the M. E. church officiated and a quartette composed of Mrs. Rev. G. W. Baker, Miss Ella Maymouth, W. H. Pratt and Mrs. G. G. Baker gave the following selections: "Face to Face," "Scarred by the Shadow," and "Passing Out of the Shadow."

Mrs. Mary Ann Cushing Dead.
Although having nearly rounded out four score years, Mrs. Mary Ann, widow of the late Francis H. Cushing, was attending to her usual household and social duties a week ago, but Sunday was taken with a severe attack of indigestion and a few hours passed away.

Mrs. Cushing was a daughter of Jeremiah Shaw and was born in Weymouth. Deceased married Francis H. Cushing who preceded her to the Great Beyond but a few years ago and her home since then has been Weymouth. She was a kind and sympathetic and one who never refused a helping hand where it was needed. Her society relations were with the Congregational church and Reynolds W. H. both of which she took a deep interest in.

She leaves one son Weston W. Cushing, a brother Chester Shaw, and a sister Mrs. Harriet Arnold, and a large circle of friends and neighbors to mourn her departure.

Funeral services were held at her late home Wednesday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. Ralph A. Huntington, assisted by a quartette composed of Mrs. T. H. Emerson, Miss Susie E. Raymond, T. H. Emerson and M. P. Garey, who sang "Come Unto Me," "Gathering Home," and "Sleep Thy Last Sleep."

Reynolds H. Cushing attended in a body and performed their burial ritual. There was a profusion of floral tributes and the burial was at Fairmount cemetery.

Naomi Magazine.

The movement of the United States government for a naval magazine on the Atlantic coast has taken a more definite form this week, and as has been well known for some time, Back Bay is the place.

Malvin J. Adams, United States district attorney, brought a petition in the federal court at Boston on Monday for the condemnation of nearly 100 acres of land on each side of the Weymouth Back river, where the government under act of Congress approved April 27, 1901, will establish the magazine.

The Commonwealth, through an act of the last Legislature, has assented to the acquisition by the federal government of this land and control of the adjacent tideswater.

The land the government wants borders the Weymouth Back river. There are 705 acres in Back Bay and 257 in Weymouth, making a total of 952 acres.

Higher land, all of which lies on the west side of the river, includes the Island known as Whale Island and the flats adjacent.

The Hingham land is a strip bordering the east side of the river, beginning at the junction of the Weymouth Back river and the Fresh river and extending to the Hingham bridge.

Notice, which may be found elsewhere in this issue, has been served on the several owners of these parcels of land this week and it is expected the work will begin in the near future.

The March of a New Idea.

It is announced that Victoria, the last of the Australian states to grant full suffrage to women, has at length accorded it.

This is a fresh illustration of the tendency of a new idea to run through a series of neighboring communities, as the measles run through a whole country when one child catches it.

New Zealand is off by giving women the full ballot in 1881. South Australia did so in 1895, West Australia in 1900, and New South Wales in 1902. In 1903 Tasmania and Queensland followed, like sheep over a hill; and the fast-rolling Australian states, Victoria has now fallen into line.

A similar series has been observable with municipal suffrage in Great Britain. In 1869 that right was granted to the women of England; in 1881 of Scotland; and in 1893, with practically no opposition, the women of Ireland were given a vote for all officers except members of Parliament.

The course of events in our own country has been much the same. The first state to grant full suffrage to women was Wyoming, in 1869, and the three other states that have since followed the example all lie close to Wyoming.

AN INDIAN'S CUNNING

THE BLACKFEET'S STORY OF THE GREAT WHITE HORSE

DARIAN STRAKER, M.D., WHICH THE
BLACKFEET SAY WAS A WARRIOR
FOR THEM IN THEIR WAR WITH THE SNAKES.

THE INDIANS CALL THE CROPS.

THE RED SUN, dyed, had left the twilight softly tinged with delicate pink. A streak of orange lighted the dark of the hills from the sky. Past the range of the prim old garden, sweet peach blossoms and birchbark's blossoms, set out with Dutch precision with rows of pens, potatoes, lettuce and butter beans, there was a wavy gleam of green, a gaudy, gaudy gleam of dashes, lifting star-like, gaudy, a star sprinkled sky.

The gaudies twinkled among these dashes, now here, now scattered, now swarming.

Beyond the meadow, the upland with its rows of great, green, red, yellow, heads, giant heads, belonging so promptly to invisible hosts of little plants.

There were the chirp of crickets, the creak of tired frogs and the peep of little birds getting up to go to sleep.

Peas, pulses.

The girl was no longer troubled, to think out the problem of her life. She was lived.

Formerly she had suffered from brain fog. It had troubled her.

After the terrible summer day of heat, under the tireless commands of Fran Wiesenerger, she had rightfully, too, been disengaged.

"Serving maid or princess," said Graf Hanau von Crotzthal then, "I love a princess."

There was a moment of silence, during which Elizabeth suddenly remembered.

"I, too, am disgraced," she cried, with a joyful laugh. "And you a princess."

Elizabeth, who stood without the blue-covered veranda, shading her eyes from the sun, had seen her, now there, now scattered,
now swarming.

MASS., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

FRIDAY, AUG. 18, 1905.

A storm may be expected about the 23 and 24 as these are the dates set for the Marshfield fair.

Historic Plymouth will be perpetuated by the postmarked illustrated number of the Old Colony Memorial which was issued last week. Ancient and modern Plymouth were fully pictured and much valuable information conveyed.

The battle of ballots is drawing nearer and up to date no man is a pronounced candidate for the head of the Democratic ticket. The safety of all governments lies in two or more well balanced parties and the choice of the best men in them to be placed at the head and some good men ought to come to the front.

"Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men" was sung by the angels which hovered over Bethlehem more than two thousand years ago, but as Boston was not on earth at that time and was subsequently located so far away from the birthplace of the Christ child, it is now necessary when the city government meets to have a attendance a force of police men to clinch them into peace.

POT HUNTERS.

A pot hunter generally supposed to be a man who will shoot anything from a chickadee to a robin in order to get something for a pot dinner. It is a business which has grown quite extensively within the past few years and the legislature of last winter wisely enacted the following law:

(Chas. 317.)

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR GRANTING TO INSANITARY FISHING BODIES PERMIS- SION TO HUNT, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any insanitary fishing body to hunt anywhere within the limits of the Commonwealth, unless he is licensed to do so hereafter provided.

Sec. 2. City or town clerks shall, upon the application of any insanitary fishing body person who is a resident of the city or town in which the application is made, and upon the payment of a fee of fifteen dollars, issue to such person a license, upon a form to be supplied by the commissioners on fisheries and game, bearing the name, age and place of residence of the licensee, with a description of him, as near as may be, and authorizing the said licensee to hunt and to kill game on any lands in which such hunting or killing is not forbidden by law or by written or printed notices posted thereon by the owner, lessor or occupant thereof. Such license shall be issued for that period of the year when game may lawfully be killed, and shall not extend the hunting or killing of game under such rerestriction as for such purposes as are imposed or authorized by law.

The said license is not to be transferable, and shall not extend to any of the commissioners on fisheries and game or their deputies, and to any game warden or deputy warden, and to any sheriff, constable, police officer or other officer qualified to serve process. The fees received for the said licenses shall annually be paid into the treasury of the Commonwealth.

Sec. 3. A license granted hereunder shall be revoked by the city or town clerk issuing the same in case the licensee is convicted of a violation of the fish and game laws, or of hunting upon Sunday in violation of law.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the commissioners on fisheries and game, upon request by any city or town clerk, to supply such clerk with license forms prepared in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Sec. 5. Whoever violates any provision of this act, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars. Approved, April 27, 1905.

Mrs. Flora D. Nickell.

Mrs. Flora D. Nickell, wife of ex-Sergeant Charles E. Nickell of Weymouth died yesterday afternoon aged 51 years. Mrs. Nickell was prominent in Womans Relief Corps circles and was a past president of Hyannis Relief Corps. She was a member of the First Baptist Church. The funeral will take place from her late residence 61 Torrey's lane tomorrow, Saturday, afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Susan Thayer Vinton.

Mrs. Susan Thayer Vinton, wife of Herbert A. Vinton, died yesterday afternoon at her home on Front street, Weymouth, having illness for six years, one month and 12 days.

Besides her husband she is survived by a daughter Mrs. Richmond Clapp and a sister Mrs. Angus Walker. The funeral will take place from her late residence 44 Front street Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Highbank Park.

Highbank Park has had a most successful week owing to the great musical comedy entitled "When Husband Comes to Town." This play has made a great hit in every park where it has appeared this summer, and there is no winter, for it is the most comical, jolly and brilliant piece ever presented. The scene is which the old country uncle finds his young nephew in New York, is a great one.

"The Dazzler" will be the coming attraction and it bids fair to be the best yet. This play gives an opportunity for a lot of good artists to display their individual talents which they will do to perfection. Most all of the characters have had leading parts the past winter in many well known companies, and it is expected that large crowds will appear at the park with their appearance. The comedy brass band, which will appear in this show, will be one of the great attractions.

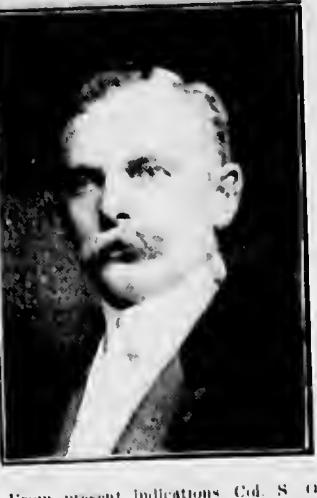

The village school which will teach a big hit in every week, will be as fascinating as any number on the program. All the voices are in perfect harmony and show signs of careful training. Several new and interesting vaudeville acts will be introduced during the comedy. Among the most prominent to appear are Hedy and Currier, E. A. Clarke, Lester Armstrong, P. W. Maguire and Cook and Hall.

The play will be given afternoons and evenings at Highbank Park for one week commencing August 21st.

WEYMOUTH BASE BALL.

Deweys-Norfolks.
One of the largest base ball audiences of the season witnessed a contest between the Deweys and Norfolks at the fair grounds South Weymouth. Col. Bigney twirled the ball for the Deweys and confined the Norfolks to one lonely base hit and Martell helped him behind the bat and also Spenser, Orr and others in the field.

White did the usual amount of pitching for the Norfolks and kept batters guessing. The catching of Odell and field work of Philbrook and Loun won the approval of the bleachers and following is a summary of the game.

AS AN ANNUAL CLASS WEAVER.

FRIDAY, AUG. 25, 1905.

20,000 people spent Sunday at Revere Beach and there was not an arrest for any drunk or misbehavior. Was it owing to the good behavior of the crowd or closed eyes of the police.

In 1902 and 1903 the people of New Orleans were saying bad things about Gen. H. F. Butler; they are now calling for some man of his caliber to pad the way for the election in the sanitary condition which he made.

Wilson Walsh, the reckless automobile driver who has been reported dead for violation of law and underpaid his last dues at Newark on Saturday. Had all he had and that was his life. You men are newspaper.

It has been discovered that a good cow which will give about 100 gallons of milk a day and the milk is nutritious and palatable, but as few people about here have a cow, whether or not we will produce, this discovery will hardly relieve the local milk famine.

Weymouth appropriated $1,200 and placed it in the hands of a committee to suppress the liquor traffic. The $1,200 is all gone; there has been one conviction and the people are now asking if the price paid was not in excess of the results obtained.

$200,000 isn't much money to talk about if you say it's quick" and that seems to be the point of difference now existing with the peace diplomats at Portsmouth. It would be well for one side or the other to "say it's quick" and the little difference.

Four hundred Teresian flies from Italy, which are said to be death on gipsy moths, are now stored in Malden and will be let loose in the early spring. Let us hope we have not introduced a new pest which will be worse than that which it was introduced to exterminate.

The H. S. Cheung box with its $25,500 stocks, bonds and other securities, which so mysteriously disappeared in February, has shown up at the home of the owner in just the condition he left it and the question now is: did Mr. Cheung escape paying the tax on account of their absence.

If the fair of the Weymouth Agricultural and Industrial Society which opens Friday on the grounds at South Weymouth, is as good as the souvenir book just gotten out through the efforts of H. B. Bell, it will be an event worthy of more than ordinary mention. The illustrations are especially fine and convey much valuable historic information. The ads with which it is adorned are suggestive of large business industries and the book will no doubt be sought after and preserved. Do not forget the fair which is scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Monday, the 1st, 2d and 3d of September.

Church Services.

Under this heading we have tried to give our readers a fairly correct directory of the churches in Weymouth and a few in Braintree with the time of regular and any special services.

During the summer vacation we realize that through no fault of ours, unless it has been a fault to have used it at all, it has been far from correct and at times quite misleading.

For the purpose of revising we omit the list this week and will try next week to have a revised and complete publication of church services and the operation of the several pastors in this work.

Prohibition Caucus.

The Prohibition party of Weymouth will hold a caucus in Temple of Honor hall, E. Weymouth, Monday evening for the purpose of electing delegates to the State convention to be held in Park Street church, Boston, Thursday, Sept. 11th, at 10:30 a.m. Also to elect delegates to all other conventions. The call for this caucus is signed by George W. Dyer, chairman, and L. W. Tamm, secretary.

Resolutions, W. R. C.

At a regular meeting of Reynolds Corps No. 102, held Aug. 18, 1905, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased the Most High to remove from our midst our brother, William W. Blackmar, Founder-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic; and

Whereas, it is but just that a fitting recognition of his many virtues should be had, therefore be it

Resolved, By Reynolds Corps No. 102, on the records of the Woman's Relief Corps, that while we have with humble submission to the will of God, we do not the less mourn for our brother who has been taken from us.

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of Gen. Blackmar to say, that in regretting his removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was, in every way, worthy of our love and respect.

An active member of the Grand Army of the Republics honored leader whose almost unique and unequalled for his wisdom who was dear to us all, a citizen whose upright and noble life was a standard of emulation to his fellows.

Resolved, That we tenderly sympathize with the family of the deceased and commendation for consolation to him who so much all things well and whose characteristics are meant in memory.

Resolved, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy be forwarded to the widow of our departed friend by the Secretary of this meeting.

PEOPLES' COLUMN

The column under this title will be given to all subjects, the management of the paper distinctly disclaiming all responsibility for the opinions here expressed.

South Weymouth, Aug. 18, 1905.

To the Editor Weymouth Gazette: As there was nothing doing in the churches last Sunday I took up the first thing that came along with the Sunday paper—the Boston Herald, and as my eye fell on Weymouth in big letters I felt instinctively that the very worst had happened, for the papers of the Hibernians living Weymouth to the front for any thing short of murder, and this proved to be the case.

The Weymouth band was "upset" and the Weymouth Agricultural and Industrial society was boycotted by the Brockton Musical Union. Well, I explained, we have at last arrived! With burlesque and with Lawson, with Japanese and Basque with the Chinese boycotters, our own beloved Union, we are steady in it, on the first page. You know I have been busy for the past couple of months getting out a new programme for the fair, the chief aim being to give publicity to our shows, and now, after I am "all in" here come advertising with a vengeance, who gave in the "good shoulder" at the start, was afterwards converted and served as clerk of the horse races; and after I have shown that the Weymouth band had been a main feature of our show for years, now comes along a show to the band, what's that? Why Castelletti's American band, and the Castello orchestra, the Mandolin club, and all the rest will soon hear from Brockton, where, the only infant industries, will be the theatrical, and the musical air which he made. Weymouth famous will be blown to the winds, by our little blast from the Brockton Musical Union. The ancient and honorable Weymouth Historical society will next come under the ban, for how can we celebrate Old Home Week without the Weymouth band? We are here indeed! Well, there's a committee meeting next week to see about holding a cemetery fair, and I shall go in for it strong, and boom Mt. Hope. The caterers are the best hold.

It is now discovered that a good cow which will give about 100 gallons of milk a day and the milk is nutritious and palatable, but as few people about here have a cow, whether or not we will produce, this discovery will hardly relieve the local milk famine.

The ancient and honorable Weymouth Historical society will next come under the ban, for how can we celebrate Old Home Week without the Weymouth band? We are here indeed! Well, there's a committee meeting next week to see about holding a cemetery fair, and I shall go in for it strong, and boom Mt. Hope. The caterers are the best hold.

It is now discovered that a good cow which will give about 100 gallons of milk a day and the milk is nutritious and palatable, but as few people about here have a cow, whether or not we will produce, this discovery will hardly relieve the local milk famine.

Weymouth appropriated $1,200 and placed it in the hands of a committee to suppress the liquor traffic. The $1,200 is all gone; there has been one conviction and the people are now asking if the price paid was not in excess of the results obtained.

$200,000 isn't much money to talk about if you say it's quick" and that seems to be the point of difference now existing with the peace diplomats at Portsmouth. It would be well for one side or the other to "say it's quick" and the little difference.

It is now discovered that a good cow which will give about 100 gallons of milk a day and the milk is nutritious and palatable, the records showing that a good deer, who gave in the "good shoulder" at the start, was afterwards converted and served as clerk of the horse races; and after I have shown that the Weymouth band had been a main feature of our show for years, now comes along a show to the band, what's that? Why Castelletti's American band, and the Castello orchestra, the Mandolin club, and all the rest will soon hear from Brockton, where, the only infant industries, will be the theatrical, and the musical air which he made. Weymouth famous will be blown to the winds, by our little blast from the Brockton Musical Union.
